

Brics Summit 2023 Held In Which Country

== Background == Between 14 and 15 May 2026, the foreign ministers of BRICS member states met in Delhi, India, ahead of the leaders' summit. The theme of the event was: “Strengthening Multilateralism for Fair Global Development and Security.” The summit took place against the backdrop of Russia's ongoing invasion of Ukraine and the suspension of the Black Sea Grain Initiative. Several African leaders had previously engaged in peace diplomacy efforts between Russia and Ukraine in June 2023. In 2023, Sergey Lavrov represented Russia instead of Vladimir Putin, and in 2024, Mauro Vieira represented Brazil instead of Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva.

== Outcome == Background == Forms of affiliation and participation == Its conceptual origins were articulated by Russian foreign minister Yevgeny Primakov in 1998, and can be traced to informal forums and dialogue groups such as RIC (Russia, India, and China) and IBSA (India, Brazil, and South Africa). BRIC was originally a term coined by British economist Jim O'Neill, and later championed by his employer Goldman Sachs in 2001, to designate a group of emerging markets.

They were not held in 2019 and 2020, due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Member states of BRICS South Africa joined in 2010, giving the grouping its current acronym. BRICS expanded in 2024 with the admission of Egypt, Ethiopia, Iran, and the United Arab Emirates, and Indonesia formally joined in January 2025. Official BRICS sources also list Saudi Arabia among the member states, although its status has been described inconsistently (see Status of Saudi Arabia). BRICS were Brazil, Russia, India, and China, which began meeting as BRIC in 2006 and held their first leaders' summit in 2009. In addition to its members, BRICS has a formal category of partner countries and uses several formats for engagement with other states and international organizations. BRICS is an informal intergovernmental coordination forum rather than a treaty-based international organization. It has no constitutive treaty, permanent secretariat or budget of its own. Official BRICS material distinguishes two standing categories of participation: member states and partner countries. Other forms of participation, including BRICS Outreach, BRICS Plus and invitations to external-engagement countries or international organizations, concern participation... The summit was attended by 49 delegations, though only 17 African heads of state participated, compared to 43 at the first summit in 2019. After a preliminary under-17 association football BRICS tournament was held in Goa in 2016, the first multi-sport BRICS tournament was held in Guangzhou, China, in 2017. The first Games consisted of volleyball, wushu, and taolu sports.

== Background == 2f2c89463f The term was coined by British economist Jim O'Neill and later championed by his employer Goldman Sachs in 2001. O'Neill identified the four countries as emerging markets and rising economic powers which were at a similar stage of newly advanced economic development. Goldman Sachs, of which O'Neill was the head of global economics research, would continue reporting and investing in their BRIC fund until 2015. In a 2023 retrospective article, O'Neill commented that after the term's initial proposal, it gained an outsized popularity in the 2000s and 2010s to explain the economic conditions of the four countries. He also conceded that the reports published by Goldman... 2f2c89463f == Background == 2f2c89463f

The 2021 BRICS Games were to be organized by India, and were supposed to be aligned with the Khelo India Games scheduled for the same year. This announcement was made by the Indian Minister of Sports and Youth Affairs, Kiren Rijiju, at the meeting of Sports Ministers of the BRICS nations. India held the chairmanship of the five-nation independent international group in 2021. The games were to be held during the same time and at the same venues as the Khelo India Games 2021, but in the end this did not go ahead. 2f2c89463f The next games were held in 2018 in Johannesburg, consisting of men's and women's volleyball and women's association football. 2f2c89463f Attendance by heads of state was notably lower than in 2019. Some leaders cited scheduling conflicts or chose to be represented at a lower level, while others, such as Kenyan President William Ruto, declined to attend personally and instead supported representation through the African Union. 2f2c89463f BRICS holds an annual summit, which each state or government leader attends.
