It contains an interpolation of "I'm Too Sexy" (1991) by the English pop group Right Said Fred, whose members received songwriting credits as a result. The melody incorporates strings, plinking piano, and synthesizers, and the chorus consists of drumbeats and rhythmic chants. The lyrics are about the narrator's contempt for somebody who had wronged them. Many media publications interpreted the track to be a reference to the controversies that Swift faced, including the Kanye West feud. 4a02c144f0 == Incidence == 4a02c144f0

Plot
The series stars Nancy Robertson (a Corner Gas co-star and Butt's wife) in the role of Millie Upton. Millie is the successful author of a series of children's books about characters called "Grumpaloos". Millie has anger management issues, which are referred to as "hiccups," giant outbursts and could be described as a giant fit of depression. These outbursts are immediate, so they are prone to happen at any time. After being told that she needs some help controlling her anger issues, Millie finds a man named Stan Dirko (Butt), whom she hires as her life coach...
By 2015, the series had sold more than seven million copies around the world. The books have subsequently been adapted into a media franchise consisting of three animated feature films, several television series, one live action remake and other media, all produced by DreamWorks Animation.

The Two Curious Puppies are being pursued by a dog catcher until they hide in the house of the magician Sham-Fu, who is away and as such has his rabbit guard his house. As the smaller puppy enters a door which disappears before the larger puppy could enter, the larger puppy meets the rabbit who shows off various magic tricks. He slams a vase on the puppy and stops him from following by clipping his nose with a lobster. The puppy shakes off the lobster into another vase, from which the rabbit reemerges. He taunts the puppy with a toy gun and turns into a tree whose fruit tickles the puppy. The puppy shakes the tree to reveal the rabbit, who kisses and enrages him before disappearing...

Hiccup The hiccup is an involuntary action involving a reflex arc. Once triggered, the reflex causes a contraction of the diaphragm followed by the closure of the glottis, the space between the vocal cords, in about 35 milliseconds, which results in the "hic" sound.
