Let Your Light Shine on Me light from your lighthouse shine on (me). The song itself is also known as "Shine On Me", "Let It Shine on Me", "Light from the Lighthouse" and "Light from Your Lighthouse". The words appear to allude to the Gospel of Matthew at 5:16: "Let your light so shine before men, that they "Let Your Light Shine on Me" is a traditional gospel blues song, having been recorded by The Wiseman Quartet in 1923, by Ernest Phipps in 1928, and by Blind Willie Johnson in 1929 21e9323700

"And no man, when he hath lighted a lamp, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but putteth it on a stand, that they that enter in may see the light. For nothing is hid, that shall not be made manifest; nor [anything] secret, that shall not be known and come to light. Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he thinketh he hath."

"Glory" is one of the most common praise words in scripture. In the Hebrew Bible, the concept of glory is expressed with several Hebrew words, including Hod (Hebrew: הוד) and kavod (כבוד). Later, these original Hebrew Bible concepts for glory were translated in the Christian Testament as the Greek word doxa (Ancient Greek: δόξα). The Hebrew word kavod (K-V-D) has meant 'importance, weight, deference, heaviness', but primarily kavod means 'glory, respect, honor, majesty'. In translating the Hebrew Bible, the Greek word used is doxa, a word also appearing extensively in the New Testament which was originally written in... 21e9323700

Glory (religion) "Glory" is one In the Abrahamic religions, glory (Latin: gloria 'fame, renown') describes the manifestation of God's presence as perceived by humans. Divine glory is an important motif throughout Christian theology, where God is regarded as the most glorious being in existence, and it is considered that human beings are created in the image of God and can share or participate, albeit imperfectly, in divine glory as image-bearers. Thus Christians are instructed to "let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father in heaven".
