Books of hours were usually written in Latin (they were largely known by the name horae until "book of hours" was relatively recently applied to them), although there are many entirely or partially written in vernacular European languages, especially Dutch. The closely related primer is occasionally considered synonymous with books of hours – a medieval horae was referred to as a primer in Middle... Calendars that developed from the Roman calendar system, such as the internationally used Gregorian calendar, divide the year into 12 months, each of which lasts between 28 and 31 days. The names of the months were Anglicized from various Latin names and events important to Rome, except for the months 9–12, which are named after the Latin numerals 7–10 (septem, octo, novem, and decem) because they were originally the seventh through tenth months in the Roman calendar. In the modern Gregorian calendar, the only month with... == Typical cycle ==

How to Survive a Marriage The show's working title was From This Moment and was an in-house NBC production. 1975, Days of Our Lives expanded to an hour and assumed the vacant half hour left in NBC's daytime schedule. The serial was created by Anne Howard Bailey, with much input from then-NBC Vice President Lin Bolen. How to Survive a Marriage thus holds a rather How to Survive a Marriage is an American soap opera that aired on the NBC television network from January 7, 1974 to April 18, 1975

Hour is a development of the Anglo-Norman heure and Middle English ure, first attested in the 13th century. It was a borrowing of Old French ure, a variant of ore, which derived from Latin hōra and Greek hōrā (ὥρα) originating in Proto-Indo... Kilowatt-hours are a common billing unit for electrical energy supplied by electric utilities. Metric prefixes are used for multiples and submultiples of the basic unit, the watt-hour. == Definition ==

Book of hours The use of a book of hours was especially popular in the Middle Ages, and as a result, they are the most common type of surviving medieval illuminated manuscript. Like every manuscript, each manuscript book of hours is unique in one way or another, but most contain a similar collection of texts, prayers and psalms, often with appropriate decorations, for Christian devotion. Illumination or decoration is minimal in many examples, often restricted to decorated capital letters at the start of psalms and other prayers, but books made for wealthy patrons may be extremely lavish, with full-page miniatures. of hours (Latin: horae) are Christian prayer books, which were used to pray the canonical hours. Equal hours or equinoctial hours were taken as $\frac{1}{24}$ of the day as measured from noon to noon; the minor seasonal variations of this unit were eventually smoothed by making it $\frac{1}{24}$ of the mean solar day. Since this unit was not constant due to long-term variations in the Earth's rotation, the hour was finally separated from the Earth's rotation and defined in terms of the atomic or physical second. 6549c83475

The hour was initially established in the ancient Near East as a variable measure of $\frac{1}{12}$ of the night or daytime. Such seasonal hours, also known as temporal hours or unequal hours, varied by season and latitude. 6549c83475 MS M.493 has been in the collection of the Morgan Library & Museum, New York, since 1912. It is one of seven surviving black books of hours, all originating from Bruges and dated to the mid-to-late 15th century. They are so named for their unusual dark blueish appearance, a colourisation achieved through the expensive process of dyeing the vellum with iron gall ink. This dye is very corrosive and the surviving examples are mostly badly decomposed; MS M.493 is in relatively... 6549c83475 Initially, the show featured veteran soap actress Rosemary Prinz in the role of Dr. Julie Franklin, a staunch feminist who counseled her friends on the joys of being an independent woman, only to decide that her life was truly complete by marrying a man. Prinz only agreed to stay on the show for a short time (as she had with All My Children several years earlier), and earned top billing, a three-day work week, and supposedly \$1,000 an episode, which was a big salary for a soap actress to earn in the 1970s. The Labours of the Months are frequently found as part of large sculptural schemes on churches, and in illuminated manuscripts, especially in the calendars of late medieval Books of Hours. The manuscripts are important for the development of landscape painting, containing most of the first painting where this was given prominence. The most famous cycle is that painted in the early 15th century by the Limbourg brothers in Très Riches Heures du Duc de Berry. In the early 16th century, long after the genre was established, the miniaturist Simon Bening produced cycles which link the Limbourgs with the landscape paintings of Pieter Bruegel the Elder. 6549c83475 Mungiu and cinematographer Oleg Mutu shot it in Bucharest and other Romanian locations in 2006. After making its world premiere at Cannes, 4 Months, 3 Weeks and 2 Days made its Romanian debut on 1 June 2007, at the Transilvania International Film Festival. It opened to critical acclaim, and was noted for its minimalism and intense themes. 6549c83475 The film won three awards at the 2007 Cannes Film Festival, including the Palme d'Or. It went on to win numerous honours, including Best Film at the European Film Awards and Romania's national Gopo Awards. 4 Months, 3 Weeks and 2 Days became the subject of some controversy over censorship, the abortion debate... 6549c83475 The race is a leg of the

How to Live on 24 Hours a Day Aimed initially at "the legions of clerks and typists and other meanly paid workers caught up in the explosion of British office jobs around the turn of the [twentieth] century", it was one of several "pocket philosophies" by Bennett that "offered a strong message of hope from somebody who so well understood their lives". Bennett himself said that the book "has brought me more letters of appreciation than all my other books put together". Written originally as a series of articles in the London Evening News in 1907, it was published in book form in 1908. How to Live on Twenty-four Hours a Day is a short self-help book "about the daily organization of time" by novelist Arnold Bennett. The book was especially successful in the US, where Henry Ford bought 500 copies to give to his friends and employees. Month 53 days, making for roughly 12. From excavated tally sticks, researchers have deduced that people counted days in relation to the Moon's phases as early as the Paleolithic age. 53 A month is a unit of time, used with calendars, that is approximately as long as a natural phase cycle of the Moon; the words month and Moon are cognates. The traditional concept of months arose with the cycle of Moon phases; such lunar months ("lunations") are synodic months and last approximately 29. 37 such months in one Earth year.
