In most cases, a trader will be offered something of value and given a choice of whether to keep it or exchange it for a different item. The program's defining game mechanism is that at least one of the items is hidden from the trader until the choice has been made. Only after the items are revealed does the trader learn if they have chosen something of a higher or lower value than their starting item, or if they have received a comedic "zonk" prize with little or no value. 667977b52d
