I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings is a 1969 autobiography describing the young and early years of American writer and poet Maya Angelou. In the course of Caged Bird, Maya transforms from a victim of racism with an inferiority complex into a self-possessed, dignified young woman capable of responding to prejudice. The book begins when three-year-old Maya and her older brother are sent to Stamps, Arkansas, to live with their grandmother and ends when Maya becomes a mother at the age of 16. The first in a seven-volume I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings is a 1969 autobiography describing the young and early years of American writer and poet Maya Angelou. The first in a seven-volume series, it is a coming-of-age story that illustrates how strength of character and a love of literature helped her to overcome racism and trauma ac4b01967b

Golden Rule Valluvar says: Do not do to others what you know has hurt yourself. Various expressions of this rule can be found in the tenets of most religions and creeds through the ages. —Kural 316

Why does one hurt others knowing what it is to be hurt. It is sometimes called an ethics of reciprocity, meaning that one should reciprocate to others how one would like them to treat the person (not necessarily how they actually treat them). —Kural 318

Furthermore The Golden Rule is the principle of treating others as one would want to be treated by them ac4b01967b
