Inspired by Singapore's Electronic Road Pricing (ERP) system after London officials had travelled to the country, the charge was first introduced on 17 February 2003. The London charge zone is one of the largest congestion charge zones in the world, despite the removal of the Western Extension which operated between February 2007 and January 2011. The charge aims to reduce traffic volumes in central London, lower air and noise pollution, and generate revenue for investment in the city's transport system. 46eab216a0
