In regards to their intentions by allowing their business to be documented for television, Steve DeAngelo has said, "We wanted to be a model to other dispensaries, most of [which] have a media phobia. We wanted to tell our story and we gave Discovery complete access so that people could make up their own minds... There are a lot of stereotypes about who comes to these dispensaries, but viewers will see our customers cover a huge cross-section of the population - age, race and economic classes. They will also see how Harborside treats cannabis as a medicine, and we have a high standard of medical care." 26ad9dd2c9 In this cartoon, we start with flashbacks feature a "Goofy"-like version of Christopher Columbus, who is given a cigar by a Native American.
