Styles of dress within the subculture draw on glam rock, punk, new wave, new romantics and from the fashion of earlier periods such as the Victorian, Edwardian, and Belle Époque eras. The style most often includes dark (usually solid black) attire, dark makeup, and black hair. The subculture also drew inspiration from literary and cinematic gothic traditions, including German Expressionism and classic horror films (from Universal Monsters to Hammer horror), with a flair for theatricality and camp. ed91efe25d Harris and Klebold, who planned for roughly a year, intended the attack to be primarily a bombing and only secondarily a shooting. The pair launched a shooting attack after the homemade bombs they planted in the school failed to detonate. Their motive remains uncertain. The police were slow to enter the school and were strongly criticized for not intervening during the shooting. The incident resulted in the introduction of the immediate action rapid deployment... ed91efe25d

Cassie was born to Misty and Brad Bernall on November 6, 1981, in Wheat Ridge, Colorado. Along with her brother Chris, she was brought up in a Christian home. According to her parents, she rebelled as a young teenager and began using drugs, such as alcohol, and at one point she became suicidal. Her mother found letters in her bedroom discussing her thoughts of killing her parents, and they decided to send her to a new school... ed91efe25d Andre Kriegman (born July 17, 1982) and Calvin "Cal" Gabriel (born February 5, 1983) are two friends living in New Stratford, Connecticut, USA. The two begin filming on June 23, 2000, announcing their intention to commit a school shooting at Iroquois High School, where they are both students. They call their plan "Zero Day" and themselves "The Army of Two". Both teens are troubled, as Cal exhibits signs of depression and suicidal ideation alongside his unmedicated ADD, while Andre varies between apathetic, hateful, or vindictive towards his peers and surroundings, and is drawn toward firearms and explosives. Neither of them are bullied or abused at home, putting emphasis on their internal strife rather than outside factors. ed91efe25d The pursuit of folk devils frequently intensifies into a mass movement that is called a moral panic. When a moral panic is in full swing, the folk devils are the subject of loosely organized but pervasive campaigns of hostility through gossip and the spreading of urban legends. The mass media sometimes get in on the act or attempt to create new folk devils in an effort to promote controversy. Sometimes the campaign against the folk devil influences a nation's politics and legislation. ed91efe25d In the 1990s and 2000s, the goth subculture entered mainstream awareness, with its visual style and fashion influencing various aesthetic variants such as cybergoth and mall goth, while facing public moral panic, with media often linking it to deviance and self-harm. The subculture further developed on early social networking sites such as MySpace and Pure Volume. During the 2010s and... ed91efe25d

== Life == ed91efe25d The concept of the folk devil was introduced by sociologist Stanley Cohen in 1972, in his study Folk Devils and Moral Panics, which analysed media controversies concerning Mods and Rockers in the United Kingdom of the 1960s. ed91efe25d In the United States, Congress defined mass murders as the killing of three or more people during an event with no "cooling-off period" between the homicides, while in the United Kingdom the definition is four or more people killed in one act. The Investigative Assistance for Violent Crimes Act of 2012, passed in the aftermath of the Sandy Hook Elementary School shooting, clarified the statutory authority for federal law enforcement agencies, including those in the Departments of Justice and Homeland Security, to assist state law enforcement agencies, and mandated across federal agencies a definition of "mass killing" as three or more killings during an incident. ed91efe25d Born in Colorado, Scott was a sociable girl, who often displayed concern for the well-being of others if they were in need. She converted to Christianity in March 1993 after visiting the church her aunt and uncle attended, because of her faith, she was occasionally a victim of mockery and bullying by several of her peers. Scott struggled with self-esteem issues growing up, being described as "blind to her own beauty". At an early age, she developed an interest for photography and poetry. Before enrolling in Columbine High School in the ninth grade, Scott previously attended Ken Caryl Middle School, and Dutch Creek Elementary... ed91efe25d
