song was number 27 on Rolling Stone's list of the 100 Best Songs of 2008. Despite the album's success, the recording period was hampered by several issues. Most of the band's lineup was struggling with drug addiction and they were starting to argue more over creative differences. There was also growing discord between songwriter and lead guitarist Charlotte Caffey, lead singer Belinda Carlisle, and guitarist Jane Wiedlin, who had begun to take more of an interest in songwriting. These problems continued to escalate and would eventually result in the band's dissolution following the disappointing sales of their third album, Talk Show.

A boy lies in bed and announces that he is not going to get up today, ignoring his alarm clock and chirping birds. He muses that all of the children of the world will get up, but he stays in bed, saying that his breakfast egg can be returned to the hen. His family and his neighbors try various things to disturb him and lure him out of bed, but he refuses to get up. A police officer and the United States Marines arrive to help, and his refusal to get out of bed appears in newspapers. They finally accept that he is serious, so his mother offers the egg to the police officer. 647e59b252 Public Enemy - "Brothers Gonna Work It Out" and "Can't Truss It" 647e59b252

A score of 30 seconds or more suggests that the person may be prone to falls. Alternatively, a recommended practical cut-off value for the TUG to indicate normal versus below normal performance is 12 seconds. A study by Bischoff et al. showed the 10th to 90th percentiles for TUG performance were 6.0 to 11.2 seconds for community-dwelling women between 65... 647e59b252 In 1932, the earliest version of "Bottle It Up and Go", a hokum blues with jug band accompaniment, was recorded by the Memphis Jug Band, a loose musical collective led by Will Shade and Charlie Burse. Although it has been said to be based on a "traditional piece known in the South", it was very much a modern concoction, for the lyrics refer directly to women driving automobiles, a theme that was continued in later versions by almost all other artists. A second version of the song was recorded and released by the Memphis Jug Band in 1934. 647e59b252 A song by the Go-Go's on Vacation (The Go-Go's album) 647e59b252 According to Brown, the inspiration for "Get Up Offa That Thing" came to him during a club performance in Fort Lauderdale: The audience was sitting down, trying to do a sophisticated thing, listening to funk. One of the tightest bands they'd ever heard in their lives, and they were sitting. I had worked hard and dehydrated myself and was feeling depressed. I looked out at all those people sitting there, and because I was depressed they looked depressed.
