Before the line opened, it faced technical and structural issues that persisted during its operation, resulting in a partial closure of the elevated section where the accident occurred, lasting from 2014 to 2015. An earthquake in 2017 further damaged the structure; although repairs were completed within a few months, residents reported that problems persisted for years. Originally announced in 2007, Line 12 was supposed to be an underground line capable of operating rubber-tired trains due to the instability of the city's soil. However, budget and time constraints led to modifications that allowed underground and above-ground operation with steel-wheeled trains. The construction was carried out by Empresas ICA, in partnership with Alstom Mexicana and Grupo Carso. It was the first railroad construction project... 5f48222ddd
