Billboard Year-End Several hundred Year-End charts are now published by Billboard, the most important of which are the single or album charts based on Hot 100 and Billboard 200 respectively. The same method was used Billboard Year-End charts are cumulative rankings of entries in Billboard magazine charts in the United States in any given chart year. factors including the total weeks a song spent on the chart and at its peak position were calculated into its year-end total

In the Book of Daniel, Daniel reads in the "books" that the desolation of Jerusalem must last for seventy years according to the prophetic words of Jeremiah (verse 2), and prays for God to act on behalf of his people and city (verses 3-19). The angel Gabriel appears and tells Daniel that he has come to give wisdom and understanding, for at the beginning of Daniel's prayer, a "word" went out and Gabriel has come to declare this revelation (verses 20-23):

Prophecy of Seventy Weeks The prophecy has been the subject of "intense exegetical activity" since the Second Temple period. The Prophecy of Seventy Weeks (chapter 9 of the Book of Daniel) tells how Daniel prays to God to act on behalf of his people and city (Judeans and Jerusalem) The Prophecy of Seventy Weeks (chapter 9 of the Book of Daniel) tells how Daniel prays to God to act on behalf of his people and city (Judeans and Jerusalem), and receives a detailed but cryptic prophecy of "seventy weeks" by the angel Gabriel. James Alan Montgomery referred to the history of this prophecy's interpretation as the "dismal swamp" of critical exegesis

Billboard's "chart year" runs from the first Billboard "week" of December to the final week in November, but because the Billboard week is dated in advance of publication, the last calendar week for which sales are counted is usually the third week in November. This altered calendar allows for Billboard to calculate year-end charts and release them in time for its final print issue in the last week of December. == Background and writing == History == "How Many Licks?" was praised by music critics after its release and in retrospective reviews; the Neptunes remix also received positive reviews.
